Please note: this is a legally binding document. By participating, or viewing or remaining on the premises, you are assuming the risk of injury.

RISK ACKNOWLEDGE, CONSENT TO PARTICIPATE, LIABILITY WAIVER, AND RELEASE

I, _____ (print name) wish to participate in a sports activity with the Harrisburg City Islanders. I realize that there are dangers and risks involved in this participation. Some of the risks include a full range of injuries, from minor to severe, and include infections, broken bones, brain damage, paralysis, and even death. I understand that neither the instruction of coaches, nor the presence of referees, safety rules and regulations, nor the use any protective equipment or safety netting of padding, nor nay sports medicine provided, will guarantee safety or prevent all injuries which a participant or spectator might sustain. I agree to accept these risks as a condition of my participation in this program. I also understand that the risk of injury applies even to spectators of this sports program. Moreover, if I have a special condition, I understand that this may create additional risks. I understand it is my responsibility to determine the nature and extent of these risks, and, based on that knowledge, decide whether I will participate and, thereby accept the additional risk. I agree to accept the risks of participating and agree and understand that laying sports is hazardous, and I agree not to sue the following entities and further agree to release, discharge and/or otherwise indemnify, Harrisburg Capitals Soccer Inc., d/b/a Harrisburg City Islanders, its owners and any other companies they own, its employees, agents, associated personnel, business partners, and the owners of any facilities and or fields. I voluntarily assume the risk of injury while I am participating or am present at any team events and agree to report any injuries to management before leaving the area.
